

FREDERICKSBURG POLICE INCIDENTS

MONDAY, MARCH 11, 2013

BURGLARY:

1000 block West Kensington Cir, 3/10 6:00 a.m. A resident reported that a neighbor found his garage door opener on the street and returned it to him around 2 p.m. His wife reported that she had heard the garage door go up around 6 a.m. and also found the light on inside. It was determined that the door opener had apparently been stolen from the victim's unlocked vehicle on the street and the unknown offender had used the opener to gain access to the garage. Nothing appeared to be stolen. The investigation is ongoing.

UNLAWFUL ENTRY:

1600 block Caroline St, 3/9 11:30 p.m. A neighbor reported that she saw two individuals enter a home that is unoccupied and undergoing renovations. The responding officers found two subjects inside the house and took them into custody without incident. Eric Paramore, 27, and Jennifer Love, 22, both of Stafford, were arrested and each charged with unlawful entry. Paramore and Love were released by the magistrate on $1500 personal recognizance bonds.

LARCENY:

3300 block Fall Hill Ave, 3/10 2:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. A resident reported that she dropped her wallet on a trail in the woods leading to the canal path. The victim returned and found her wallet, but the contents had been removed and thrown into the brush and the cash had been stolen. No suspects or witnesses at this time.

VANDALISM:

HDT Robotics, 415 Wolfe St, 2/21 – 3/04 8:00 a.m. An employee reported that an unknown person damaged the exterior of a company-owned vehicle. No suspects or witnesses at this time.

1800 block Charles St, 3/8 6:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. A resident reported that an unknown person broke a flower pot on the front porch. No suspects or witnesses at this time.

1000 block West Kensington Cir, 3/10 12:30 a.m. – 7:45 a.m. A resident reported that an unknown person broke the door handle off the driver's side door of his vehicle. No suspects or witnesses at this time.
